

GS Chronology

MILESTONES

- January 1993 – A new addition to the Lexus family, the Lexus GS 300 luxury performance sedan, makes its debut at the Los Angeles Auto Show and the North American International Auto Show (NAIAS) in Detroit.
- March 1993 – The 1994 GS 300 goes on sale.
- January 1997 – Lexus introduces the HPS (High Performance Sedan) concept vehicle at the 1997 North American International Auto Show. The HPS is a dramatic hint of the all-new GS 400/300 performance sedan to be launched as part of the Lexus model line-up for 1998.
- September 1997 – Lexus introduces its next-generation GS 400/300. New engines featuring Variable Valve Timing with intelligence (VVT-i) produce 300 horsepower in the V8 GS 400 and 225 horsepower in the six-cylinder GS 300. A new 5-speed automatic transmission is also installed. “Something Wicked This Way Comes” advertising campaign is acclaimed for its dramatic impact.
- October 1997 – The second-generation 1998 GS 400/300 goes on sale.
- December 1997 – Lexus debuted its one-of-a-kind Street Rod at the Los Angeles Auto Show. Based on a '32 roadster, the Lexus Street Rod was created to showcase a specially modified Lexus GS 400 V8, producing more than 400 horsepower.
- March 1999 – Lexus enters the world of motorsports with the GS 400 luxury sport sedan in the Grand American Motorola Cup Sports class. The Team Lexus GS 400 won at Road Atlanta in its sixth race and went on to claim two track records and four podium finishes in Lexus’ inaugural racing year.
- April 1999 – Team Lexus launched and debuted two privateer Lexus GS 400 racecars in the Motorola Cup series. In its successful inaugural season, the GS 400 secured four podium finishes in nine races.
- August 2000 – Lexus L-Tuned Sport Packages, aftermarket sport packages that add more performance and style to the GS series, go on sale through Lexus dealers.
- September 2000 – For 2001, the GS receives a new 4.3-liter V8 engine and is re-named the GS 430.
- March 2003 – Lexus introduces a limited edition GS 300 SportDesign model. The 2003 SportDesign edition features new saddle-color leather seats, gunmetal-colored aluminum wheels and an exclusive Graphite Gray Pearl exterior.
- January 2004 – Redesigned third-generation GS luxury sport sedan debuts at the NAIAS in Detroit.
- February 2005 – The third-generation GS goes on sale for the 2006 model year.

- September 2006 – The 2007 GS 350 replaces the GS 300, with 306-horsepower, 3.5-liter V6 replacing GS 300's 245-horsepower 3.0-liter V6; GS 430 offers newly optional Active Stabilizer system that counteracts body roll.
- August 2008 – The 2007 GS 460 replaces the GS 430, with 342-horsepower, 4.6-liter V8 replacing GS 430's 300-horsepower 4.3-liter V8. GS 460 provides more power and performance yet with similar fuel efficiency.
- August 2011 – The fourth-generation GS 350 makes its world debut at Pebble Beach Concours d'Elegance. Completely redesigned, inside and out, the GS features the brand's new design philosophy, with styling cues such as a distinctive new front grille, that will be seen on all future Lexus vehicles. The new GS will also lead the rest of the Lexus lineup in an entirely new direction of driving dynamics.
- October 2011 - All-New 2013 GS 350 F SPORT debuts at 2011 SEMA Show. The F SPORT package features 19-inch staggered width wheels, dynamic handling with F SPORT Tuned Adaptive Variable Suspension (AVS) and stopping power with new larger front brakes with high friction pads
- February 2012 – Fourth-generation 2013 GS 350 goes on sale.
- November 2014 – Lexus introduces The Crafted Line by Lexus to celebrate 25 years of luxury. The special edition is available in the LS 460 F SPORT (750 units), GS 350 F SPORT (875 units) and IS 250 F SPORT (1,375 units) in all-weather drive and rear-wheel drive models and the RX 350 AWD F SPORT (1,500 units) and ES 350 (1,500 units). The vehicles feature an Ultra White exterior with contrasting black door handles, side mirrors and grills. Eye-catching seats, contrast stitching, headrest and door panels are either two-tone Black/Scarlet or Black/Cabernet. Lexus partnered with TUMI to create exclusive matching duffel bag set and owners will receive a Meguiar's® New Car Care Kit.
- February 2015 – Lexus returned to the Super Bowl with two 30-second spots. The 30-second musical car spot, "Make Some Noise," featured the NX during the second quarter of Super Bowl XLIX on February 1. The next 30-second spot, for RC 350, aired during the third quarter and was inspired by the social community's response to online videos posted on the Lexus Vehicles YouTube channel last week. "Let's Play" features a remote control RC F performing drift stunts and then joined by a RC 350. In addition to these two spots, Lexus aired the new GS spot, "Break the Circle" and the LS spot "Uncompromised" during the Super Bowl pre-game show.
- December 2015 – The GS 200t RWD joins the GS line with a 2.0-liter turbocharged four-cylinder engine teamed with an eight-speed automatic transmission. The turbo engine delivers 241 hp and 258 lb.-ft of torque, giving the GS 200t outstanding all-around performance and efficiency.
