

Toyota Motor Manufacturing, Tennessee (TMMTN) Fact Sheet

March 17, 2020

Company Profile

Groundbreaking: 2003

Start of Production: 2005

Investment: $365 million

Plant Sites: 200 acres

Plant Sizes: 450,000 sq. ft.

Employment: 300

President: Wes Woods

Products

Products: engine blocks and automatic transmission cases and housings

2020 Production: 1.6 million engine blocks, 778K transmission cases and housings

Aluminum: 115.5 million pounds of recycled aluminum used in 2020

Operations: high pressure casting, die making

Investments/Milestones

- 2020: The plant's name changed from Bodine Aluminum to Toyota Motor Manufacturing, Tennessee.
- 2019: Toyota announced a $50M investment and plant expansion in Tennessee.
- 2018: Toyota celebrated its 15th anniversary in Tennessee.

Community Investment:

- Over $400,000 in philanthropy given back to the plant community in 2020.
- More than $1.7 million given in Tennessee since 2003.

Impact on Tennessee:

The Center for Automotive Research (CAR) conducted a study based on 2015 data and found:

- Direct employees (manufacturing-related and new vehicle jobs) earned $517 million in payroll.
- When direct employees are combined with jobs at companies that supply Toyota, as well as spinoff jobs, the company is estimated to support 13,000 jobs in Tennessee.

Helpful websites: www.toyotagrants.com/tmmtn; www.pressroom.toyota.com; www.tourtoyota.com