“We’re grateful for the strong response from our Toyota customers in 2025, which reflects our deep commitment to affordability and choice,” said Andrew Gilleland, senior vice president, Automotive Operations Group, Toyota Motor North America. “The success of iconic top-sellers like the Camry and Corolla, alongside a broad lineup of vehicles starting under $30,000, shows that customers value having accessible options. This momentum was also fueled by our popular electrified vehicles, the ever-popular RAV4, and the exciting, redesigned Tacoma.”

“We also had an exceptional year at Lexus,” continued Gilleland. “It was encouraging to see more customers choose our vehicles across the luxury market. We attracted many new buyers drawn to our advanced technology and growing electrified offerings. For both brands, we remain focused on delivering vehicles that fit a wide range of lifestyles in the year ahead.”
