The 2027 Toyota RAV4 Hybrid Electric Vehicle (HEV) carries over from the 2026 model year with a notable update to the Woodland grade, which gets new suspension components that result in a ground clearance of 9.1-inches (vs. 8.1-inches on other RAV4 HEV grades). HEV models are available in LE, XLE Premium, and Limited grades. The LE and XLE Premium grades have a choice of front- or electronic on-demand all-wheel drive (FWD or AWD); the Limited grade has standard AWD. All 2027 RAV4 grades have the latest Toyota Audio Multimedia system and Toyota Safety Sense active safety suite, standard.
