

Daytona Rising Project - Toyota Injector Interior

006

February 18, 2016

Amy Purdy

TOYOTA ATHLETE
Orange County, California

At the age of 19, Amy became sick with meningitis. The illness caused her to lose her legs, but that didn't stop Amy. Besides becoming a top-ranked adaptive snowboard champion, she co-founded Adaptive Action Sports to enable people in similar circumstances to thrive and achieve in sports and life.

To learn more about Adaptive Action Sports, visit adacs.org.

TOYOTA | Let's Go Places