"Industry sales in 2016 remain in line with last year's record levels," said Bill Fay, group vice president and general manager of the Toyota division. "Toyota outpaced the industry to be the no. 1 retail brand in September, led by Camry, RAV4, and Corolla, and the fourth quarter outlook is strong thanks to our best light truck supply of the year."

Lexus posted September sales of 25,801 units, up 2 percent on a volume basis and DSR basis.
"Lexus continued to see its best-ever year-to-date sales performance from our LUV line up, with the NX up almost 52 percent and the LX more than doubling its volume, all which helped the brand to a best-ever September LUV month," said Jeff Bracken, Lexus division group vice president and general manager.
