TORRANCE, Calif., July 29, 2016 – Toyota Motor Sales (TMS), U.S.A., Inc., today announced manufacturer’s suggested retail prices (MSRP) for the 2017 Prius Liftback, Yaris and Yaris iA, RAV4 and RAV4 Hybrid, Sienna minivan, and Tundra full-size pickup truck.

Prius Liftback

The 2017 Prius Liftback features Toyota Safety Sense™ P (TSS-P) as standard on all grades, reflecting an excellent value. TSS-P includes four active safety technologies, including Pre-Collision System (PCS) with Pedestrian Detection, Automatic High Beams (AHB), Lane Departure Alert (LDA) with Steering Assist, and Full Speed Dynamic Radar Cruise Control (DRCC).

The MSRP for the 2017 Prius Liftback will range from $24,685 for the Prius Two grade, to $30,015 for the Prius Four Touring. The MSRP's reflect an average overall increase of $374, or 1.4 percent.

Yaris

Value is enhanced for the 2017 Yaris with the addition of Toyota Safety Sense™ C (TSS-C) as standard equipment on all grades. TSS-C includes Pre-Collision System (PCS), Automatic High Beams (AHB), and Lane Departure Alert (LDA).

The MSRP for the Yaris ranges from $15,250 for the L grade with a manual transmission to $18,000 for the sporty SE grade with an automatic transmission. The MSRP's reflect an average overall increase of $355, or 2.2 percent.

Yaris iA

The Scion iA joins the Toyota family as the Yaris iA for the 2017 model year. Updates to the iA include Toyota interior and exterior badging. Like all Toyota models, iA will include Toyota Care, a complimentary plan covering normal factory-scheduled maintenance and 24-hour roadside assistance for two years or 25,000 miles, whichever comes first.

The Yaris iA will remain monospec for 2017 model year. Key features include: choice of six-speed manual or six-speed automatic transmissions, 16-inch alloy wheels, 7-inch touchscreen display audio plus a remote interface commander in the center console, Remote keyless entry with push-button start, and backup camera. One exterior color, Sterling Silver, will be replaced by a new silver, Chromium.

The Yaris iA base MSRP will increase $250, reflecting an increase of 1.5 percent. Prices will range from $15,950 for the iA with a manual transmission and $17,050 for the automatic.

RAV4/RAV4 Hybrid

The 2017 RAV4 and RAV4 Hybrid will feature Toyota Safety Sense™ P (TSS-P) as standard on all grades. TSS-P includes Pre-Collision System (PCS) with Pedestrian Detection, Automatic High Beams (AHB), Lane Departure Alert (LDA) with Steering Assist, and Dynamic Radar Cruise Control (DRCC).

One new grade, Platinum, joins the RAV4 gas lineup. The RAV4 Platinum will offer a premium option to customers seeking the highest level of style, technology and luxury from a small SUV. Standard features on the Platinum Grade will include:

- Full Body Color – Lower plastic cladding, color-keyed to top body color
- Entune Premium Audio with Navigation and JBL
- Foot-well ambient Lighting
- Heated steering wheel
- Five-door Smart Key
- Floor-activated, height-adjustable power back door
- Bird's Eye View Camera
- Plush floor mats

- Door sill protectors (Platinum Badged)
- Interior ornamentation (five pieces)
- Platinum badging

One new exterior color, Galactic Aqua Mica, replaces Hot Lava and will be available on both gas and hybrid models.

The base MSRP for RAV4 gas models will range from $24,910 for the 4×2 LE to $36,150 for the 4×4 Platinum grade. The MSRP's reflect an average overall increase of $540, or 1.9 percent. Prices do not include the new SE grade for both RAV4 gas and RAV4 Hybrid grades, which will be announced at a later date.

The base MSRP for the RAV4 Hybrid will range from $29,030 for the RAV4 Hybrid XLE, to $34,030 for the premium RAV4 Hybrid Limited. The prices reflect an overall average increase of $353, or 1.2 percent.

Sienna

Standard across all Sienna models is a new 3.5-liter Direct Injection V6 engine and Direct Shift 8-speed automatic transmission. The combination of this new powertrain will result in improved fuel economy and best-in-class horsepower and torque. Horsepower will increase from 266 to 296 while torque will improve from 245 to 263.

The base MSRP for the 2017 Sienna will range from $29,750 for the Sienna L seven-passenger 4×2, to $47,310 for the Sienna Limited Premium seven-passenger all-wheel-drive. The prices reflect an overall average price increase of $900, or 2.6 percent.

Tundra

The Toyota Tundra, recognized for its value and dependability, offers detail changes for 2017, enhancing value and comfort in a hard-working, hard-playing full-size pickup truck.

A tow hitch receiver is added to the 4.6-liter V8, making this feature standard on all Tundra models. Tundra Limited models will now include power front bucket seating as standard, including a four-way front passenger seat.

Exterior color additions include Barcelona Red Metallic, Super White, and Black on SR grades. Inferno has been discontinued on the TRD Pro grade but added to SR5 and Limited models. The SR5 and Limited also now offer Quicksand. The ultra-rugged Tundra TRD Pro adds two colors, Cement, Barcelona Red Metallic, joining Super White.

The base MSRP for the 2017 Tundra will range from $30,020 for the 2WD Extended Cab SR with a Standard Bed, 4.6-liter V8 and six-speed automatic transmission to $50,030 for the 4WD CrewMax 1794 Edition and Platinum grade, each with a short bed, 5.7-liter V8, and six-speed automatic. The MSRP's reflect an average overall increase of $535, or 1.4 percent.

Toyota MSRPs do not include a delivery, processing and handling of $865 for Toyota passenger cars, $940 for small/medium SUV's, van and small pickup, $1,095 for large SUVs, and $1,195 for large pickup truck. All DPH fees became effective on July 27. The DPH fee for vehicles distributed by Southeast Toyota (SET) and Gulf States Toyota (GST) may vary.
