

Toyota and Mazda Team Up to Make Cars Better

May 13, 2015

Tokyo, Japan, May 13, 2015 — Toyota Motor Corporation and Mazda Motor Corporation today entered an agreement to build a mutually beneficial long term partnership. By leveraging the resources of both companies to complement and enhance each other's products and technologies, the partnership will result in more appealing cars that meet the diverse needs and tastes of customers all over the world.

For full details, go to: <http://newsroom.toyota.co.jp/en/detail/7871861/>