

Toyota Statement on Bookout Trial

October 25, 2013

Torrance, Calif., Oct. 25, 2013 – Toyota today issued the following statement in response to the verdict and settlement of the Bookout v. Toyota case in Oklahoma County Court:

“While we strongly disagree with the verdict, we are satisfied that the parties reached a mutually acceptable agreement to settle this case. We remain committed to providing our customers with safe and reliable vehicles, and we will continue to defend our products vigorously at trial in other legal venues.”
