

1977 Toyota Corolla SR5 Sport Coupe 003

February 17, 2011

For Release: Nov. 17, 1976

GOOD SPORT -- Toyota's Corolla Sport Coupe SR-5 is a real competitor for 1977. This two-door comes equipped with such standard features as an AM/FM radio, five-speed overdrive transmission, electric clock, steel-belted radial tires, mag-type wheels and sporty tape stripe. To keep the driver informed, there's a tachometer, ammeter, and separate gauges for water and oil temperature and oil pressure. For comfort, the Sport Coupe has tinted glass, carpeting, flip-out rear quarter windows and center console with armrest. It's powered by an economical 1.6-liter, four-cylinder, hemi-head engine. The 168-inch-long car is also equipped with power front disc brakes for safer stopping.
