

Toyota Continues Overtime Production Suspension at Some North American Plants

November 02, 2011

Flooding in Thailand continues to necessitate adjustments in Toyota's production hours. To conserve the affected parts, all North American vehicle assembly plants will suspend overtime the week of November 7.