

PAVE Releases Public Perception of Automated Vehicles Results

May 19, 2020

Image not found or type unknown

Toyota was a founding member of the Partnership for Automated Vehicle Education (PAVE) coalition to help advance customer understanding of automated technology and its benefits. Today, PAVE announced the results of a study to understand the Public Perception of Automated Vehicles. To learn more about the report click here:

<https://pavecampaign.org/news/pave-poll-americans-wary-of-avs-but-say-education-and-experience-with-technology-can-build-trust/>