

Powered by 100% Renewable Energy: Toyota Logistics Services' Long Beach Facility

May 28, 2024

Image not found or type unknown

With more than 40 years of experience processing millions of popular Toyota and Lexus vehicles destined for customers throughout North America, Toyota Logistics Services' Long Beach facility is leading the company's efforts toward a carbon neutral future.

Watch this short video to learn more about Toyota's first port vehicle processing facility in the world to be powered by onsite-generated, 100% renewable electricity.