LEXUS & SCOTT PRUETT BRING PERFORMANCE TO FOUR ICONIC TRACKS

Lexus Performance Driving School Comes to Indianapolis, Daytona, Monticello and Monterey

PLANO, Texas (July 11, 2018) – The Lexus Performance Driving School is right around the corner. Experience a full day of track-driving exhilaration with expert coaching by veteran sports car driver and Lexus brand ambassador, Scott Pruett - all behind the wheel of some of the most powerful Lexus vehicles ever made. Starting September 14, 2018, Lexus is bringing the action to four iconic locations:

- September 14-15, 2018: Indianapolis Motor Speedway in Indianapolis
- September 21-22, 2018: Daytona International Speedway in Daytona, FL
- November 2-3, 2018: Monticello Motor Club in Monticello, NY
- January 25-27, 2019: Monterey Peninsula in Monterey, CA

Lexus Performance is a unique approach to driving, where raw speed and power meet agility, balance and control to put the breathless thrill of driving at the limit firmly in your grasp. If that idea raises your pulse, then the Lexus Performance Driving School, with classes ranging from beginner to advanced, is the perfect place for you to learn high-performance driving skills in the cockpit of the most powerful Lexus vehicles, including the first-ever LC 500, Lexus' definitive prestige coupe. Participants will also have the opportunity to drive the GS F, the most powerful Lexus sedan ever made and the striking, aggressive, unapologetic and unrivaled RC F.

Lexus Performance Driving School provides the opportunity to experience Lexus like never before, including:

- Expert group and individual instruction on a range of performance driving topics
- Advanced, hands-on driving techniques to refine confidence control and performance
- Rare and valuable driving insights, strategies and perspective from Scott Pruett
- Challenging exercises to master steering, grip, control and braking
- Timed autocross courses to put the training to the test
- Full-speed hot laps to unleash the pulse-pounding capabilities of Lexus F Performance
